

Decor indulgence

Looking for inspiration? Whether it's pure decor indulgence or basic home-improvement ideas you're after, at the Vaal Homemakers Expo you'll find everything you need at over 170 stands. Drop in at the Sports and Events Centre at Emerald Casino, Vanderbijlpark, from 26 to 29 July. Tickets cost R30 for adults, R15 for pensioners and entry is free for children under 12.

- Visit www.homemakersexpo.co.za

Tattoo your living space

6

Tattoo Furniture Design was launched at Decorex Cape and promptly made its mark by winning the Best Decor award at the exhibition. Modern, bold and beautiful, Tattoo Furniture is handmade with a technique new to furniture design – tattooing. Patterns are laser-cut into wood and then hand-injected with paint.

- Visit www.tattoofurniture.co.za, or call Tracey Collis on 082-565-1831, or Claire Letoret on 083-444-4499

WIN

Seven lucky readers can each win a lip and eyecare hamper worth R600 from Dermaphuzion™

Plagued by dark rings under your eyes, puffiness, fine lines and wrinkles? Are your lips always dry? Or do you want slightly fuller lips for a more sensual pout? Dermaphuzion have launched three beauty products that are the answer to your lip and eyecare problems – Dermaphuzion Serum Lip Moisturiser, Dermaphuzion Serum Lip Volumiser and Dermaphuzion Serum Eye Gel.

- SMS your name, 'care' and your answer (a, b or c) to 34022 before 23 July. Each SMS costs R2. You may enter as many times as you like.

Question: How many products have been launched?
 a) Five
 b) Two
 c) Three

7

Antique attraction

The National Antiques and Decorative Arts Faire will be back at the Sandton Convention Centre from 20 to 22 July, showcasing the country's top antique dealers. Among the faire's highlights are the valuations that take place throughout the three days. Entrance fee is R50.

- Visit www.naada.co.za

